TRANSNATIONAL CRIMINAL LAW

Organised Crime and Terrorism in International Law

Workshop

Giovedì 24 settembre 2026

ore 9.30 – 16.30

Dipartimento di Giurisprudenza

Università degli Studi di Ferrara

Corso Ercole I d'Este 37 – Ferrara

Aula 2

Relatore

Professor Dr Andreas Schloenhardt

Visiting Professor, Autumn 2026

This workshop broadly introduces participants to international legal frameworks pertaining to criminal law, chiefly organised crime and terrorism (often referred to as 'transnational criminal law'). These legal frameworks set out a range of criminal offences and mechanisms to enable and enhance international cooperation. They seek to close legal loopholes to prevent and suppress organised crime and terrorism and ensure that perpetrators cannot evade criminal justice.
